them and assign tasks to the agitators in conformity with the tasks established by the Kreisleitung.

f. The evaluations made by the Party shop leaders are to be transmitted to the Agitation Section of the Kreisleitung once each week by 2:00 P.M. on Saturday. Reporting forms for this purpose are being issued to the individual basic Party units. The forms will be returned to the Kreisleitung after having been accurately completed.

g. Once a week the shop agitation groups are to hold seminars under the direction of the functionary for agitation. These seminars must be held only after the end of the work day and are to last two hours.

h. Agitation groups will cooperate closely with the Peace Committees, the committees of the National Front, the trade union educational groups, the editors of the wall-newspapers, and with those responsible for the shop radio. Outstanding examples of agitation work are to be published in the wall-newspaper. Arguments of the opposition are to be refuted on a factual basis.

2. Agitation groups are requested to act according to these instructions and, under all circumstances, to observe the deadlines for the weekly reports. Party secretaries are to enforce strict observance of the measures listed above for the accomplishment of agitation work. The first reports are due on 21 July 1951.
